Please add your picture to this gallery so that we can better learn each other's names. See the Gallery Instructions.

Karl Lieberherr, your instructor. I like the topic of programming languages and together with my research group we have thought a lot about how to improve them and use them properly. One such “proper use” activity has been the Law of Demeter. See Karl's home page for further information.

Jesse Tov, your TA. See Jesse's home page.

Graham Higgins.